| Description     | Recombinant HumanLy6/PLAUR domain-containingprotein 6(LYPD6)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Species/Host    | E. coli                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Storage         | The shelf life is related to manyfactors, storage state, bufferingredients, storagetemperature and the stability ofthe protein itself. Generally, theshelf life of liquid form is 6months at -20°C/-80°C. Theshelf life of lyophilized form is12 months at -20°C/-80°C. |
| Tag             | N-terminal GST-tagged                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Note            | For research use only                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Expiration Date | 6 months from date of receipt.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
