

Product Datasheet

CFL1 antibody (orb22812)

|                          |                                                                                                         |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Description       | Rabbit polyclonal antibody to CFL1. The protein is involved in the translocation of actin-cofilin co... |
| Species/Host      | Mouse                                                                                                   |
| Conjugation       | Unconjugated                                                                                            |
| Note              | For research use only                                                                                   |
| Application notes | Monoclonal/Polyclonal Antibodies, Miscellaneous Antibodies                                              |
| Clonality         | Monoclonal                                                                                              |
| Expiration Date   | 12 months from date of receipt.                                                                         |